Fund requests are subject to approval by the Board of Directors. Not all requests can be granted or granted in full. The funds provided may be spent only in accordance with the provisions of Grantee's funding request and budget as approved. The program and budget are subject to modification only with Grantor's prior written approval. Questions that may arise about the program's responsibilities, goals, expected results, and workplan are resolved by reference to these documents. Grantor reserves the right to exercise oversight, in whatever manner it deems suitable with respect to Grantee's use of these funds.
